WHEAT MARKET BOILING.

THE CEREAL CUTS MERCURIAL ANTICS IN NEW YORK.

Drops Three and Then Recovers Eight Cents--The Crop is Short in the Northwest.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

NEW YORK, Aug. 23.—After a slight rise here wheat went off three and a quarter cents on realizations, then quickly recovered this and gained eight cents more. The news from abroad reports further rise there.

Conflicting reports of crop conditions is having much to do with this feverish state of the market. The foreign demand still continues strong.

No Change in Chicago.

CHICAGO, Aug. 23.—Wheat remains active at about Saturday's prices.

NEW YORK, Aug. 23.—Wheat opened strong and immediately advanced this morning. Corn led wheat in activity and advanced a cent and a half.

Poor Wheat Crop in Northwest.

MINNEAPOLIS, Aug. 23.—The wheat yield in the Northwest will fall short of first estimates. In North Dakota the crop is not an average one and in many sections it has been already spotted.

$20,000 a Day More for Bread.

NEW YORK, Aug. 23.—With the rise in wheat the price of bread has been raised by putting less flour in the loaves and making them smaller.

Bakers decided to take this step in many districts today. This means an increase of twenty thousand dollars a day in the amount paid for bread in this city.

EARLY BIRD AFTER THE WORM.

Republicans Preparing for the Congressional Campaign of '98.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 23.—Plans are already being shaped, in a general way, by the Republicans officially connected with the national congressional campaign committees to conduct organized party work to precede the congressional elections in ninety-eight. In some congressional districts work will be begun even earlier.

KLONDYKE OUT-DYKED.

Fifteen Thousand Dollars in 6 Weeks from a North Carolina Mine.

Special to THE TELEGRAM.

RALEIGH, Aug. 23.—In six weeks two men have taken out $15,000 in pure gold from a vein struck near here.

Philadelphia in Darkness.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 23—Shortly after noon a severe storm put the city in darkness and flooded the streets with water. Much damage was done.

Faure Arrives at Cronstadt.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

CRONSTADT, Aug. 23.—The French cruiser Rothnan, with President Faure and suite on board, arrived at 11:30 this morning.

The Richmond Excursion.

The colored excursion to Richmond left this morning shortly after 9 o'clock, carrying a good crowd. A special car was reserved for white people and a goodly number took advantage of the trip.

A low rate prevailed, the fare for the round trip being only $2.00, and this never fails to catch the average colored citizen.

Will Leave Greensboro.

Miss Hattie Hartsell has accepted a position as stenographer for the firm of W. H. Ragan & Co., of High Point, and will leave Greensboro next Saturday.

Miss Hartsell is a most estimable young lady. She has resided in Greensboro a number of years, and has many friends here, who wish her well in her new home.

William Lamb and Jennie Leonard, colored, were granted a marriage license this morning. Two attorneys acted as witnesses, one being Col. Morehead and it was the first marriage license the Colonel ever witnessed.

SECRET COMMISSION FOR CUBA.

Secretary Fishback Already En Route But Purpose Unknown.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 23.—The fact that a secret commission has been appointed by this government, for Cuba leaked out at the State Department today.

Commissioner Calhoun's secretary, Fishback, is en route to Havana on some mission for President McKinley. The trip is involved in mystery.

GUILFORD COLLEGE NOTES.

Pleasant Reception Saturday Night--Personals.

GUILFORD COLLEGE, Aug. 23.—A reception was given on Saturday evening by the Y. M. C. A., and the Y. W. C. A., to the old and the new students. The exercises were under the auspices of the senior class, with the assistance of Miss Ruth Worth. Walter Blair welcomed the students in behalf of the Y. M. C. A., and Miss Worth extended a welcome in behalf of the Y. W. C. A. President Hobbs welcomed the students in behalf of the College and faculty, saying that these societies are doing a grand work in the uplifting of the student life, and they are recognized as important factors in College work. President Hobbs said he was glad that when a student came to Guilford College he came to a place where Jesus was.

The other exercises of the evening consisted in music by Mrs. Albright, a solo by Miss Woodard, a recitation by Miss Moffitt, and a song by Petty, Redding and Tomlineon. An auction conducted by Prof Stubbs was enjoyed by all.

An opportunity was given the students to get acquainted with each other, and they all mingled in social intercourse, making every one feel at home.

Notwithstanding the inclement weather, a large crowd was present, and it was pronounced by all an enjoyable occasion.

H. B. Worth, of Raleigh, secretary to the treasurer of the North Carolina railroad, is visiting at the College.

Petty was Snowed under Saturday night.

POISONED BY ICE CREAM.

More Than Fifty Persons Sick from the Effects.

An ice cream supper was given Friday night at Archdale for the benefit of the brass band of that place.

Almost everybody in the community was there and a most pleasant evening

Ice cream was the principal refreshment served and all partook of it very freely, little dreaming that on the morrow some of them would be lying near death's door on account of it.

The cream poisoned nearly everyone who ate it, making them deathly sick. We understand that Dr. Tomlinson had fifty patients who were violently ill.

It is not known what poisoned the cream—the vessel in which it was made or the flavoring which was put in it.

Veterinary Medical Association.

The North Carolina Veterinary Medical Association will meet in Charlotte, September 7th and 8th. All members, both honorary and active, are earnestly requested to be present, as there is much business to be transacted.

All members of the medical profession, and those who are in sympathy with the welfare of our dumb animals and wish them protected by the State, are cordially invited.

The object of this association is the advancement of veterinary, medical and sanitary science in North Carolina.

There are now several contagious diseases of the domestic animals, some of which are communicable to mankind, abroad in our State, which needs official attention. None of our cities have any scientific inspection of foods and we continue to eat contaminated milk and diseased meat with as much relish as if it had been inspected. We have a number of determined workers in our association, but we need the co-operation of the people who have tender hearts and kind feelings for our faithful friends and who realize the importance of strict sanitary regulations throughout the State.

Meet us in Charlotte.

Yours truly,
J. W. PETTY, D. V. S.,
Sec. and Treas.

Greensboro, Aug. 23.

John McCreary, captain of Fire Company No. 2, of Winston, came down on the early train this morning.

ARRIVING BY TRAIN LOADS.

GRAND ARMY OF THE REPUBLIC ENCAMPMENT AT BUFFALO.

Commander-in-Chief Clarkson is on Hand--Woman's Headquarters Formally Opened.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Aug. 23.—Commander-in-Chief Clarkson of the Grand Army of the Republic arrived at his quarters this morning, and his reception constituted the first event of the week's encampment.

He was met at the depot by the local Grand Army and officially received by Colonel Wynans and members of the headquarters staff.

All indications point to an encampment that will be successful beyond the expectations of the most sanguine. Train loads of veterans and their friends are constantly arriving

The Woman's Headquarters, at 256 Delaware avenue, were formally opened this morning. During the week further effort will be made to unite the Woman's Relief Corps and the Ladies of the Grand Army.

DANGEROUSLY WOUNDED.

One Negro Shoots Another Four Times, Then Skips.

Yesterday morning two of Winston's gay and festive colored citizens (Geo. Howard and William Tatum by name) were engaged in a game of "craps" in the eastern part of the city when, as is often the case when such a game is being indulged in, a dispute arose over some trivial matter.

Strong language which had no uncertain meaning was indulged in until Howard's thirst for gore got the better of him, when he pulled a revolver from his pocket and proceeded to bore holes through the body of Tatum, four balls taking effect.

After the shooting was over, and before a policeman arrived on the scene, Howard made good his escape. He came in the direction of Greensboro and it is thought that he is probably here now.

A doctor was called to attend Tatum, who is now said to be getting along fairly well. The doctor probed three of the balls from his body, the fourth one having gone through the calf of his leg.

WOKE THE WRONG PASSENGER.

Burglar Enters the Residence of Superintendent Campbell.

One of the coolest pieces of work done recently was at Proximity Mills the other night.

Some one came to the shutters of Superintendent Campbell's window and began working at it.

Mr. Campbell was awake, but lay perfectly still and let the burglar continue operations. It did not require very long for him to get the window open and crawl inside; then Mr. Campbell sprang out of bed and went for his revolver, which was lying on the mantle, and the burglar went for the window. Mr. Campbell fired several shots at him as he ran, but failed to bring him down.

If this was to be the beginning of the petty burglaries that have troubled other towns, this warm reception given will probably nip it in the bud. All the same, Mr. Campbell should keep his revolver nearer at hand, as the next burglar might get the drop on him.

Goods Coming In.

Messrs. Fordham & Ball, who came here last week to run a racket store, have leased the store at 113 East Market street, next to G. W. Denny's, and are busy opening their stock of goods. They expect to be open to the public by the 25th—Wednesday.

They will run a general racket store with goods up to date and prices to suit everybody. They will be prepared to meet all competition. We wish these clever gentlemen much success.

Superior Court Convenes.

The regular August term of our Superior Court convened this morning with His Honor, Spencer B. Adams, on the bench. The judge's charge to the grand jury was strong. It was rather long, His Honor covering about all the ground.

The first case called was State vs. Josh Williams, colored, for abandonment.

Two colored lawyers, Fitts and Lanier by name, are here from Winston, attending court.

IMPROVEMENTS AT THE N. AND I.

Preparing for the Opening October 7th--New Course of Lectures.

A TELEGRAM man had the pleasure this morning of being shown through this school, that is doing so much for the young women of North Carolina; doing too what no other school can do because of its phenomenally low charges puts it within the reach of large numbers who could not otherwise go to college at all. Of the yearly attendance not less than 75 per cent. say they could not have attended elsewhere. When the advantages, both in the way of home comforts and facilities for instruction, are considered it is wonderful that students can be taken for $90 a year. That this is appreciated is shown by the prospects of an unusually brilliant opening this fall.

Still there are large numbers of North Carolina girls who cannot pay even this small charge as was shown in a recent instance. The management decided to have the dining room served by sixteen young ladies, all expenses to be paid by such service, and in a very brief space more than forty applications were received from young women anxious to take advantage of the opportunity. It is difficult to overestimate the work this institution is doing for that class in the State whose lives would be "bound in shallows" without it.

The plastering of the buildings, which has been in the rough up to this time, is now being plasticoed and tinted a soft green that gives the rooms a pleasing and restful appearance.

The wood work, which was plain, is being finished in cherry which harmonizes excellently with the new plastering and adds greatly to the beauty of the inner building. The domitories are also being thoroughly overhauled and put in condition for the coming occupants.

President McIver authorizes us to announce to the public that there will be at the State Normal and Industrial College during the coming school year, a course of entertainments and lectures of the highest order. Any who may desire to secure season tickets, can do so at the usual rates; or, if they prefer, after the course is announced, to buy tickets for single entertainments, they can do that.

Joe Jackson Converted.

It is reported that Joe Jackson, who is more or less well known to everybody in Guilford county, has been converted at one of Mr. Lee's meetings in High Point.

If Mr. Lee's meetings in High Point were to result in no other good than the conversion of such a man as Joe Jackson, then the evangelist might count himself well repaid for all the efforts put forth.

"GIVE US A REST."

THE case of those protection organs that claim the business revival has come through the Dingley law is very much like that of the man who came down from the joist to tell how "me and Betsy killed the b'ar." As a plain matter of fact, the whole Republican administration was up a tree until the misfortunes of others created a diversion in its favor and allowed it to descend. It should defer its claims for glory until the ridiculous figure it cut while it was up has passed from the public mind. Can any sane man fail to see that dollar wheat could no more come through the Dingley bill than "all the king's horses" could pull up a well? The tariff is not and can never be, in its benefits, more than local. It helps, simply and solely, the man protected. It has not now and has never had the opinion of one single political economist of respectable reputation, in this country or elsewhere, to support it. It will start up a few protected industries, here and there; add many millions to incomes already quite large enough; flush a few New England manufacturing towns with a hectic prosperity; tax the great majority for the benefit of a few; but not one iota can it ever contribute to the commonweal of the many.

It is hard to feel grateful to a real benefactor when he continually boasts himself such; the man or party that claims to be a benefactor when he is not, only excites weariness and disgust. The Republican party is beginning to add to its many virtues the last and consummate one of being the most gigantic and all perforating bore that has afflicted sensible people in modern times. The only reply that all this self-gratulation is worthy of is the old slang phrase: "Oh, give us a rest."

IT is pleasant to know that the Briton has recovered his spinal column at last and, speaking through Premier Salisbury, has declared that Graeco-Turkish affair must be settled and Thessaly must be given up. Turkey will yield, of course, as the insolent always do when faced by an equal or superior.

THE dispensers of pensions should now pause while an admiring public applauds. They have at last refused a pension. It is true the man, whose family applied, was killed in a drunken brawl. But they did actually refuse the pension. This grand stand play should be properly rewarded.

THAT party of poets who sat down to a Chinese dinner in New York the other day, and attempted to use chopsticks for the first time, can appreciate the difficulties of the luckless reader who has been driven to seek a mental dinner in a volume of their verse.

THE authorities are having the debris cleared from the lot on South Elm to which attention was called in Friday's TELEGRAM. That is the proper move.

THE band will probably play "Put me off at Buffalo" when the President arrives there tomorrow.

WHAT can be wrong with the Chicago Times-Herald? Why does not Mr. Kohlsaat speakout in his high-almightiness tone and brand the citizens of Chicago as irredeemable barbarians because a man has been lynched there? It took the mayor and all the police force of Albany to keep a mob from hanging Blake, the abductor; they had to be scared from the patrol wagon with drawn revolvers. Have the northern papers commented upon these evidences of lawlessness? Possibly; but we have been unable to find them. The south has been abused and reviled for twenty years for just such offences against law and order. When they occur at the very doors of those papers that have been most mouthy in this respect, they are passed over in silence. Lynching is to be condemned here or elsewhere; but we call attention to the fact that it is the southern press only that has done this. It is time that it was being noted that the southerner is more obedient to the law than the northener; it is equally true that he is, despite contrary assertions, more liberal and just, less narrow and less prejudiced than his northern brother. This attitude of the northern press has done us a vast deal of harm in the past, by keeping away from us men who would have been of great benefit in aiding our industrial advancement.

It is useless to expect aught else for the average northern editor believes himself infallible.

GENERAL NELSON A. MILES' report of his military travels in Europe to Secretary Alger, reads like a letter that Alice writes to papa, in the Sunday school story, when she has gone to visit, for the first time, Uncle John in the great city.

IS IT due to our excellent sanitation that our physicians have not yet reported a case of Klondyke fever?

DOTS FROM EDITORIAL QUILLS.

Ben Tillman is to deliver an address in New York on "Democratic Duty." He ought to follow that up with a paper before the Philological institute on the Babylonian Cuneiform inscriptions. He knows as much about one as the other.—Atlanta Journal.

The columns of the Gazette are open to short letters from Senator Pritchard and representative Pearson to explain to a too confiding constituency the misunderstanding between them and Mr. McKinley as to the diameter and and circumference of the civil service law.—Asheville Gazette.

The Republican press is trying to give William McKinley the glory for instead of attributing it to God. It's a way they have. If the Republicans don't get the people down to hard tack it will be a providential interference.—Jonesboro Progress.

Pension getting seems to be the chief object of the Grand Army of the Republic. Its original motive was good, but, judging from some of its acts and the utterances of many of its members, it is fast degenerating into a grand army of strife breeding beggars for pensions.—Tarboro Southerner.

When the Count of Turin returned to Rome after puncturing Prince Henri a couple times, the populace of that burg went wild with rejoicing, reminding us very much of Boston-s greeting to J. L. S. when in his halcyon days he sent some other bruiser to grass and returned to receive the plaudits of his admiring fellow-citizens.—Wilmington Star.

Should a newspaper that is intended for circulation in homes and is made to read by the family circle print the disgusting details of a revolting crime? Even if the details were in evidence in a court trial, have they any place in print? It is time a protest was made against the publcation of the details of monstrous crime, for, whether the pubication is through inadvertence or to bring public condemnation upon the criminal, it is demoralizing and disgusting.—Charlotte News.

General Bradley T. Johnson has it just right in what he says about the proposition to have the Grand Army of the Republic meet in Richmond next year. It means the whooping up of a crowd and the getting in of the cash. The handshaking and all the rest of it are pure bosh, as the General says. The late soldiers of the Union and the Confederacy who fought each other on principal doubtless have very sincere respect for each other, but the gushing, in each section, over the troops of the other, is forced and affected. When it comes to re-union, encampments and the like, each had better shinny on his own side.—Charlotte Observer.

TAN BARK.

Interesting Gossip from the Mountain "White City."

Special Cor. THE TELEGRAM.

MT. AIRY, N. C., Aug. 23.—A few days rest in the "White City" will convince any one that it is a land of "peace, posterity and plenty."

Mt. Airy is growing, not booming, but surely, and her people clever and hospitable to a fault.

The public schools opened today with a good attendance. Our schools are of a high order.

Mt. Airy is justly proud of winning the Jule Carr prize, offered the county making the largest percentage of the voting population in favor of local taxation for schools.

The sunsets here are unsurpassed anywhere, excepts perhaps, in Italy, but it is hard for one to believe the towering Alps can send a more gorgeous or varied shade of sunset hues athwart the western skies than the Blue Ridge—as seen from Blue Ridge Inn. Words cannot paint one of these sunsets, as they stretch a hundred miles along this bluest of blue mountains. It is no wonder so many Greensboro, Fayetteville and Wilmington people come here to gaze upon the beauties of nature, drink the waters of the White Sulphur Springs and sleep under heavy quilts or blankets—where the notes of the mosquitoes are never heard, or their bills ever presented.

Here are found some of Greensboro's enterprising citizens, among them Harry Reed, in the milling business, and Jeff Smith, merchandising.

In the manufacturing line Mt. Airy has roller flouring mills, foundries, furniture factories, tobacco factories, sash mills, cotton mills, woolen mills, etc.

The largest industry just now is the tan bark purchases, which is scattering thousands of dollars among the sturdy mountaineers, who are daily hauling the bark to Mr. Angle, who ships it to Mancheter, Va., where it is ground and exported. To give some idea of the money there is in it to the land owners, we learn that 187 car loads would be shipped this season, aggregating 4,200,000 pounds. The price paid is $4.50 per cord, weighing 3,000 pounds.

This city was the home of the famous Siames Twins, and many of their children are still living here, and are respected and enterprising citizens.

There are four large tobacco warehouses, with daily sales.

The tobacco crop is large and growing nicely.

Corn never was finer or more abundant. A little rain would be of advantage, yet nothing but a big "freshet," as farmers call it, can injure it now materially, as it is well advanced.

If you want to see pretty sunsets, crops, clever people, drink good water and sleep under "kiver" in August, come to Mt. Airy.

TRAGIC FATE OF MISS OAKLY.

Attractive North Carolina Girl Dying in a Rome Hotel.

ROME, Ga., Aug. 21.—Miss A. Oakly, an attractive young woman, said to have been the principal of a school at Rockingham, N. C., is dying in a room in the Central hotel here. The case is particularly sad and involves the fair name as well as the life of the young woman.

On Tuesday afternoon, last, a man and a woman arrived in Rome and registered at the hotel as William Chafin and Miss A. Oakly, of North Carolina. They took separate apartments and nothing wrong was suspected. On Wednesday the woman was taken violently ill and a physician was summoned.

She is now lying at the point of death and no hope of her recovery is entertained.

She is a handsome woman of about 27 years of age.

Chafin is fine looking man and bears every mark of respectability. He is still here, and seems greatly distressed over the unfortunate state of affairs.

The case excites the keenest sympathy here among those who have learned the tragic story of the unfortunate young woman.

Steamers from all parts of the globe in search of outward cargoes of grain continue to arrive at the Delaware Breakwater for orders. The number of these arrivals has probably never before been equaled. As many as four large transatlantic steamers, with a combined carrying capacity of over 800,000 bushels of grain, have arrived there every 24 hours for ten days past, and have been ordered to their loading ports as fast as possible. Many have been chartered while on their way across the ocean, having left when freights began to show an upward tendency.

The Biggest Farm on Earth.

The largest farm in this country, and probably in the world, is situated in the southwestern part of Louisiana It extends 100 miles east and west. It was purchased in 1883 by a syndicate of northern capitalists, by whom it is still operated. At the time of its purchase its 1,500,000 acres was a vast pasture for cattle, belonging to a few dealers in that country. Now it is divided into pasture sections, ranches existing every six miles. The fencing is said to have cost about $50,000. The land is best adapted for rice, sugar, corn and cotton. A tract, say half a mile wide, is taken, and an engine placed on each side. The engines are portable and operate a cable attached to four plows. By this arrangement thirty acres are gone over in a day with the labor of three men. There is not a single draft horse on the entire place, if we except those used by the herders of cattle, of which there are about 16,000 head on the place. The Southern Pacific railway runs for thirty-six miles through the farm. The company has three steamboats operating on the waters of the estate, of which 300 miles are navigable. It has also an icehouse, bank, shipyard and rice mills.—Knoxville Tribune.

EVANGELIST LEE HITS AT HICH POINT BLIND TIGERS.

Mentions "Saloon-Cursed Greensboro"--Local and Personal Matters.

TELEGRAM BUREAU,
HIGH POINT, N. C., Aug. 23, '97.

Rev. W. Lee Harrell preached his first sermon, after his return from Farmville Lithia Springs, at the Presbyterian church yesterday morning. Mr. Harrell has been improved much by his stay at the Springs, but is still weak.

Interest in the Lee meetings still continues to be felt. Mr. Lee is giving it to us hot and heavy. He preached a sermon "to men only" Sunday afternoon, in which he did some plain talking in reference to the whiskey business. Special prayer was made for saloon-cursed Greensboro. Mr. Lee said: "I thank God that this is the only place in the county of Guilford where liquor is sold legally." This naturally suggests that there are places in the county where it is sold illegally, and chief among these places is High Point. "You have whiskey in High Point," the preacher said, "and you know it. You haven't got backbone enough to go and swear to the truth and stop it. The truth is, you want whiskey yourselves, you rascals!"

In response to a proposition then made by Mr. Lee, the whole vast audience, with a few exceptions, arose and pledged themselves wherever and whenever they might have an opportunity, to do all in their power to expel whisky from Guilford county and enforce the laws of High Point on this subject.

A shipment of chairs was made by the Southern Chair Factory today to Australia.

A number of young people attended a lawn party at Archdale last Friday night.

Wednesday will see the first issue of High Point's new paper, the Citizen. It will be a seven column folio. A. S. Ellison will be editor. Subscription price, $1 per year.

You get THE EVENING TELEGRAM every day, except Sunday, for only $3. Any one sending that amount to this office will receive in addition the High Point Citizen, a first-class weekly, every week for one year. Send in your subscriptions before this offer is withdrawn.

The Orange Presbytery will be held at Bethlehem church on September 7th, at 2 p. m.

Mrs. W. A. Woollen and children, of Randleman, are visiting Mrs. J. W. Long.

THE MEETING CLOSE.

The Child Preacher Ends Her Labor in This Place.

Last night was the last appointment for the child preacher, Claretta Nora Avery, at Bethel A. M. E. church, and quite a large crowd was present to hear her wonderful preaching. A number of white people were present.

Rev. P. J. Jordan, the pastor, and the members of his congregation have been very kind and accommodating to their white friends who have gone to hear the girl preach, showing them every possible courtesy.

The beautiful church this congregation worships in was a revelation to most of the white people who have seen it. It is a great credit to the congregation which has struggled and denied themselves to build it.

The girl preached last night with the same earnestness that has characterized her other sermons here. She is regarded as the same wonderful being as when she first came to Greensboro. The colored people, so far as we have heard, are enthusiastic in their praise of her, looking upon her as a being endowed with special and divine power.

Her services are to be in great demand, many congregations in various places wanting her to preach for them. She goes from here to New York city.

Death of a Printer.

C. E. Thompson, a Winston printer, died at his home in that city last night of heart failure. He came to Greensboro last week to work for C. F. Thomas, but returned to Winston Friday night on account of sickness.

Mr. Thompson was a married man, and had only been in Winston about a year, where he worked for Stewart Bros., while they were doing the public printing. He was a brother-in-law of Chas. A. Calvo, Jr., State printer for South Carolina, and editor and proprietor of the Columbia Register.

Bank Clearings of the Week.

New York, Aug. 20.—The total bank clearings in the United States for the week were $1,139,738,615; per cent increse, 40.2. Exclusive of New York, $485,369,518 per cent increase, 20.1.

Fall Goods Coming.

H. H. Cartland will, in a few days, be receiving his line of fall goods in all the latest styles.

Mr. Cartland came to Greensboro a number of years ago, when the town was much smaller than it now is, and by honesty, uprightness and fair dealing has made for himself a name and a reputation, and has built up a business of which any man might be proud.

He is identified with many of our institutions, and has the welfare of our city at heart as much as any man in Greensboro.
